From Editor ........................................................................................................................................ 5

ARTICLES

Roman Tokarczyk, Prof. Dr hab., Maria Curie-Skłodowska University in Lublin
Searching for reorganisation patterns of rendering legal services in Poland ................................................................. 7

Antoni Dral, Dr, Higher School of Law and Administration in Przemyśl
Legal situation of persons employed at managerial government posts – de lege lata and de lege ferenda notes ........................................ 35

Piotr Sukienniczak, Dr, Kalisz
The objective truth principle versus other principles of administrative proceedings in the light of jurisdiction of the Supreme Administrative Court ................................................................. 56

Renata Lewicka, Dr, University of Łódź
Non-financial liability of organs of public administration for incorrect realisation of law-making competencies .............................. 82

Wojciech Mateusz Hrynicki, M.A., Silesian University in Katowice
Permissible number of names in the Polish legal system. Basic administrative and legal problems .............................................. 109

Michał Kazek, M.A., court division official, Provincial Administrative Court in Wrocław
Constructional requirements of a last resort complaint in the court-administrative proceedings in the light of the constitutional right to court – voice in discussion ........................................... 125

Maciej Kobak, M.A., Higher School of Law and Administration in Przemyśl
Charges in the administrative enforcement proceedings (chosen problems) ........................................................................ 135

Przemysław Niemczuk, M.A., Higher School of Law and Administration in Przemyśl
Government functions of administrative district ........................................ 158

Agnieszka Zawišańska, M.A., University of Wrocław
Burden of proof in taxation proceedings in the light of judicial decisions of administrative courts ............................................. 184
REVIEWS

Public administration. Challenges in times of the European integration, red. J. Czaputowicz
Jerzy Supernat, Dr hab., Institute of Administrative Sciences, University of Wrocław .......................................................... 198

Jacek Jagielski, Dorota Pudzialowska, Act on the Charter of a Pole,
Commentary
Jan Szreniawski, Prof. Dr hab., Higher School of Law and Administration in Przemyśl, Maria Curie-Sklodowska University in Lublin ........................................... 221

R. Hauser, J. Trzciński, Law-making meaning of decisions of the Constitutional Tribunal in jurisdiction of the Supreme Administrative Court
Ludwik Żukowski, Prof. Dr hab., Higher School of Law and Administration in Przemyśl,
Wojciech Maciejko, Dr, Higher School of Law and Administration in Przemyśl.... 225

R. A. Tokarczyk, Biojurisprudence – grounds of the law for 21st century
Ludwik Żukowski, Prof. Dr hab., Higher School of Law and Administration in Przemyśl,
Wojciech Maciejko, Dr, Higher School of Law and Administration in Przemyśl.... 233

REPORTS

Self-government Appeal Boards as guarantor of the right to good administration – Conference of the National Representatives of the Self-government Appeal Boards, Niepołomice 14-17 January 2009
Robert Sąwula, Dr, Higher School of Law and Administration in Przemyśl ......... 237

Report from a habilitation oral examination of Tomasz Bąkowski,
Legal Sciences Dr
Agnieszka Skóra, DR, University of Gdańsk....................................................... 240